

From Picture to Story: Getting Ready to Write

Take some time to jot down as many words and phrases you can to describe your image using the categories below. In addition to describing what you see in the picture, use your imagination to comment on what you'd be hearing, touching, tasting, and feeling in the picture as well.

People	Time and Place	Events	Important Objects

Write one sentence that gives an overall impression or description of the image:
